NORTH YOUNG LEADER CHALLENGE

Be part of the 1st ever North Young Leader Challenge. The Number 1 event in the North for the North's brightest and best young leaders is ready for the off. The recruitment drive for the North Young Leader Challenge 2007 is now open! Are you ready? We hope so! Apply now!

The weekend will be packed full of hands-on hockey activity. If you are a young leader between 14 and 21 years, have an England Hockey Leadership Award, have experience of leadership with other young people (e.g. in a mini hockey environment), you have confidence, a good sense of humour, discipline, and essentially, you seriously want to be a part of the North's biggest Youth Festival please send in the application form NOW! There is an entry fee of £10 for the Young Leader Challenge.

Ideally you will already be qualified as an England Hockey Leader, but if you have a Leadership Award from another sport, or can secure an endorsement from your club Volunteer Coordinator we will also welcome your application.

NORTH YOUNG UMPIRE CHALLENGE

Following the success of last years Young Umpire Challenge the North Young Umpire Action Group are looking to recruit young umpires to umpire the mini hockey games at the North Hockey Youth Festival, receive coaching, and attend workshops as part of the challenge.

If you are an umpire aged between 14 and 21 years and you have confidence, a good sense of humour, discipline, and essentially, you seriously want to be part of the North 's biggest Youth Festival please send in the application form NOW! There is an entry fee of £10 for the Young Umpire Challenge.

Ideally you will be qualified as a Foundation Umpire or Level 1 Umpire, but if you have your Young Umpire Award you will be considered for selection.

The young leaders and young umpires will be on camp from the afternoon of Saturday 21 April 2007—Sunday 22 April 2007. Accommodation and meals will be provided.

CLOSING DATE IS THURSDAY 5th APRIL 2007
